

Growing Together

...learning through play

What is Growing Together?

The Growing Together Project offers developmental screening for children aged 18 – 26 months in Red Deer, Olds and Rocky Mountain House. The screening provides a quick overview of the skills your child has learned. Children that need support to help meet developmental milestones will be connected with Growing Together services.

Growing Together

...learning through play

For more information, contact:

Growing Together

at 403.506.9286 or 403.309.5648

Growing Together Project Partners:

